The prior authorisation of the General Meeting is not required for the acquisition of treasury shares if the acquisition of the shares is necessary in order to prevent a direct threat of severe damage to the Company (this provision is not applicable in the event of a public purchase offer aimed at buying up the Company’s shares), as well as if the Company acquires the treasury shares in the context of a judicial procedure aimed at the settlement of a claim to which the Company is entitled, or in the course of a transformation.

Article 6

Shareholders' rights and obligations

- 6.1. In the absence of any provision of these Articles of Association to the contrary, the shareholders may exercise their shareholder's rights and shall fulfil their obligations in accordance with the Civil Code and the other applicable statutory provisions.
- 6.2. Shareholders may exercise their rights primarily at the General Meeting.
- 6.3. The Company's ordinary shares confer one vote per share.
- 6.4. An individual shareholder or group of shareholders may not exercise voting rights in respect of in an extent exceeding 25%, or – if the voting rights of another shareholder or group of shareholders exceed 10% – exceeding 33% of the total voting rights represented by the shares conferring voting rights at the Company's General Meeting.

The shareholder is obliged to notify the Company's Board of Directors without delay if the shareholder directly or indirectly, or together with other shareholders in the same group of shareholders, holds more than 2% of the voting rights represented by the shares conferring voting rights at the Company's General Meeting. Concurrently with this, the shareholder is obliged to designate the shareholders through which the indirect voting right exists, or the members of the group of shareholders. In the event of a failure to provide such notification, or if there are substantive grounds for assuming that the shareholder has made a misleading declaration regarding the composition of the shareholder group, then the shareholder's voting right shall be suspended and may not be exercised until the shareholder has met the above obligations. The notification obligation stipulated in this paragraph and the related legal consequences are also incumbent upon individuals who are classified or may be classified as the Company's shareholders under Article 61 of the Capital Markets Act. The Company must also be provided with proof of the conditions for exemption from the notification obligation in accordance with Section 61 (7)-(8) and (11), and Section 61 (10)-(11a)-(12), of the Capital Markets Act.

Shareholder group: the shareholder and another shareholder, in which the former has either a direct or indirect shareholding or has an influence without a shareholding (collectively: a direct and/or indirect influence); furthermore: the shareholder and another shareholder who is exercising or is willing to exercise its voting rights together with the former shareholder, regardless of what type of agreement between the participants underlies such concerted exercising of rights.

For determining the existence and extent of the indirect holding, the rules of the Credit Institutions Act relating to the calculation of indirect ownership shall be applied.

If the voting rights that may be exercised by a shareholder group exceed the threshold stipulated in the first paragraph of this section, the voting rights shall be reduced in such a way that the voting rights relating to the shares most recently acquired by the group of shareholders shall not be exercisable.

- 6.5. The Company shall publish the minutes of the general Meeting in accordance with Article 15, concurrently with their submission to the Court of Registration. Any shareholder may request from the Board of Directors a copy or an excerpt of the minutes.
- 6.6. The Company informs its shareholders and the capital market about its operation and business activity at the general meetings, and through the general meeting documentation and the disclosures prescribed under the Capital Markets Act, the Investment Services Act and the regulations of the Budapest Stock Exchange (hereinafter: BSE). The Company's business books and other business documents constitute business secrets under the Civil Code, and may not be viewed by the shareholders.
- 6.7. (Deleted)

Article 7

Signing on behalf of the Company

- 7.1. Company signatures are executed by the persons authorised to sign on behalf of the Company, by writing their own names under the written or preprinted (printed) company name, in accordance with the following rules.
- 7.2. The following are authorised to sign on behalf of the Company:
 - a.) two members of the Board of Directors jointly, one of whom must be in an employment relationship with the Company (executive board member);
 - b.) two managing directors jointly;
 - c.) an executive board member jointly with a managing director;
 - d.) two employees authorised by the Board of Directors to sign on behalf of the Company jointly;
 - e.) an executive board member jointly with an employee authorised by the Board of Directors to sign on behalf of the Company, and
 - f.) an employee authorised by the Board of Directors to sign on behalf of the Company, jointly with a managing director.
- 7.3. Those entitled to sign on behalf of the Company shall exercise their entitlement in the manner recorded fixed in the authenticated company signature declaration.

Article 8

The Company's General Meeting

- 8.1. The supreme governing body of the Company is the General Meeting of the shareholders.
- 8.2. The language of discussion at the General Meeting is Hungarian.
- 8.3. The shareholders may exercise their right to participate and vote at the General Meeting either in person or through a proxy. The letter of proxy must be presented in the form of a notarised document or a private deed of full probative force, and a copy must be handed over at the place and during the period specified in the announcement on the convening of the General Meeting. The letter of proxy may be valid for one general meeting or for a specified period, but for a maximum of twelve months. The letter of proxy – in the absence of a provision to the contrary – shall extend to a general meeting convened to continue a suspended general meeting, or a general meeting that has been reconvened due to lack of quorum.

- 8.4. The Company asks KELER Central Depository Private Company Limited by Shares (hereinafter: Keler Zrt.) to perform shareholder identification for the purposes of the General Meeting (including any repeated General Meeting), as a corporate event. The date of the shareholder identification may only fall between the 7th (seventh) and 5th (fifth) trading days prior to the General Meeting (including any repeated General Meeting). The rules relating to the shareholder identification process are set out in the latest effective regulations of Keler Zrt.

The Company, at 18:00 Budapest time on the second working day before the General Meeting (or repeated General Meeting), deletes all the data in the Share Register and at the same time registers the results of the shareholder identification process in the Share Register, and closes it with the results of the shareholder identification. After this any entry related to the shareholder's holding may only be made, at the earliest, on the working day following the closure of the General Meeting or following the day of the non-quorate General Meeting.

- 8.5. The following are preconditions for participating in the General Meeting and exercising the voting right based on a given share:
- a.) possession of the shares at the time of the owner identification must be certified by the result of the shareholder identification process,
 - b.) (deleted)
 - c.) the holder of the share must be registered in the Company's Share Register by the time of its closure in accordance with point 8.4., and
 - d.) the shareholder's possession of shares and/or voting rights must not violate the statutory provisions or the provisions of these Articles of Association, which circumstances shall be checked by the Company.

The transfer of the share prior to the start of the General Meeting does not preclude the right of a person registered in the Share Register in accordance with section 8.4 to participate in the General Meeting and to exercise the shareholder's rights.

- 8.6. If there are substantive grounds to presume that the exercising of voting rights by any shareholder or shareholders might result in a breach of the rules of the Capital Markets Act relating to the acquisition of a controlling interest, the Board of Directors' authorised representative responsible for the registration of shareholders at the venue of the General Meeting, or the Chairman of the General Meeting, may exclude the affected shareholders from attending the General Meeting or exercising voting rights.
- 8.7. The Company is not liable for the failure of shareholders to attend or for their failure to exercise their voting rights based on their shares, if the registration of the shareholder has not taken place because
- a.) the notice on the result of the shareholder identification was received by the Company after the closure of the Share Register, or

- b.) the shareholder's shareholding and voting rights breach the statutory provisions or the rules of these Articles of Association.
- 8.8. Voting at the General Meeting is performed using a computer, with a voting device. The shareholder or the shareholder's proxy, provided that he or she is attending lawfully in accordance with the provisions of these Articles of Association, may collect the voting device after certifying his or her identity and signing the attendance register at the venue of the General Meeting. If due to technical reasons voting is not possible with the voting device, the voting shall take place using books of voting slips. Any given shareholder (including a shareholder represented by a shareholder's proxy) is only entitled to use a single voting device (book of voting slips).
- 8.9. The ordinary General Meeting shall be convened annually after the financial statements of the previous business year, furnished with the auditor's clause, have been made.
- 8.10. An extraordinary General Meeting shall be convened if the Board of Directors or the previous General Meeting has decided so, or if a written request is submitted to the Board of Directors by shareholders representing at least 5% of the registered votes, specifying the reason and purpose.
- 8.11. Shareholders representing at least 1% of the votes – observing the rules on the level of detail of the agenda – may request, in writing, that the Board of Directors include a particular issue in the agenda of the convened General Meeting. This right may be exercised by the minority shareholders within eight days after the announcement of the General Meeting. The Board of Directors is obliged to include the motion on the agenda of the General Meeting, and publish it within eight days in accordance with Article 15.
- 8.12. The General Meeting is convened by the Board of Directors. The Supervisory Board convenes the General Meeting in the cases specified in the Civil Code.
- 8.13. The notice convening the General Meeting – in the absence of any provision of the Civil Code or Credit Institutions Act to the contrary – shall be published in the manner specified for the Company's notices, at least 30 days before the first day of the planned General Meeting. An announcement convening an (extraordinary) General Meeting to decide on an increase of capital in the interest of avoiding the ordering of a procedure referred to in Article 135, paragraph (2) of the Hpt. may be published at least 10 days prior to the planned first day of the General Meeting.
- 8.14. The invitation must contain the following
- a.) the Company's name and registered office;
 - b.) the date and place of the General Meeting;
 - c.) the manner of holding the General Meeting;
 - d.) the agenda of the General Meeting;
 - e.) the provisions contained in section 8.5. of these Articles of Association, with a reminder that participation and voting at the General Meeting is subject to these provisions;
 - f.) information regarding the place and date of presenting letters of proxy;
 - g.) the place and date of the reconvened General Meeting, if the General Meeting

- is inquorate;
- h.) the date of the shareholder identification and the closure of the Share Register;
 - i.) the fact that a condition for exercising the shareholder's rights is that the shareholder must be listed in the Share Register at the time of closure of the Share Register, but following this the shares may be freely traded without affecting the exercisability, at the General Meeting, of the rights that are due to the shareholder;
 - j.) the conditions, prescribed in the Articles of Association, for the exercising of the shareholder's right to request information;
 - k.) the conditions, prescribed in the Articles of Association, for the exercising of the shareholder's right to add items to the agenda of the General Meeting, and
 - l.) information relating to the time, place and manner of accessing the proposals and motions on the agenda of the General Meeting (including the address of the Company's website).
- 8.15 The agenda of the General Meeting is determined by the Board of Directors, but it is obligatory to include the proposal of the shareholders submitted in accordance with section 8.11. Any issues not included in the announced agenda may be discussed by the General Meeting only if all the shareholders are present and if they give their unanimous consent to such.
- 8.16 The Company shall publish its proposals relating to the matters on the agenda, and the Supervisory Board reports related to them, as well as the resolution proposals, on the Company's website, at least twenty-one days prior to the general meeting.
- 8.17. The General Meeting shall have a quorum if the shareholders representing over one third of the votes embodied by voting shares are in attendance.
- 8.18 If a properly convened General Meeting is inquorate, the reconvened General Meeting – convened at the time and place specified in the notice described in section 8.13 – shall be quorate with respect to the items on the original agenda, regardless of the extent of voting rights represented by those in attendance. Should the agenda of the General Meeting contain a proposal regarding the termination of trading in the shares in all regulated markets (hereinafter: delisting), the reconvened General Meeting shall have a quorum with regard to this agenda item if the shareholders representing more than half of the votes embodied by the voting shares are in attendance.
- 8.19. If the quorate General Meeting is unable to pass resolutions with regard to all of the items on its agenda, the General Meeting may resolve to suspend the General Meeting and to hold a continued General Meeting, indicating the time and venue of such continuation. The General Meeting may be suspended on only one occasion, and the continued General Meeting must be held within thirty (30) days from the day of suspension.
- 8.20. With respect to whether a formerly suspended and subsequently continued General Meeting (continued General Meeting) is quorate, the general regulations shall apply. The continued General Meeting may pass resolutions only regard items on the agenda of the suspended General Meeting regarding which no resolutions were passed by the suspended General Meeting.

- 8.21. The General Meeting is presided over by the Chairman of the Board of Directors or another person delegated to perform this task by the Board of Directors, and in the course of this he or she shall:
- a.) open the General Meeting;
 - b.) appoint the keeper of the minutes;
 - c.) establish that the meeting is quorate;
 - d.) give and withdraw the floor;
 - e.) word the resolution proposals and put them to the vote;
 - f.) announce the result of the voting based on the results indicated by the vote counters;
 - g.) order the holding of breaks;
 - h.) adjourn the General Meeting.
- 8.22. Prior to opening the General Meeting, shareholders that have a voting device may notify the Chairman of the General Meeting, in writing, if they wish to speak on any item on the agenda during the General Meeting. The comments made by the shareholders must related to the subject matter of the indicated agenda item. The Chairman of the General Meeting must give the floor to those who have thus requested it.
- 8.23. The Chairman of the General Meeting may determine the order of comments on the given agenda items, may give or withdraw the floor on the understanding that floor may only be withdrawn from a shareholder who has made a written request to speak if they deviate from the agenda despite a warning. After withdrawing the floor the Chairman of the General Meeting may stop the transcription in the minutes of what follows, and the technical conditions for speaking (amplification).
- 8.24. The Chairman of the General Meeting may decide to hold the meeting behind closed doors and exclude anyone from the meeting except the members of the Board of Directors, the executive directors specified in the Credit Institutions Act, the Members of the Supervisory Board, the auditor, shareholders with voting devices and the proxies and interpreters of such shareholders, as well as the representative of the Supervisory Authority and the BSE.
- 8.25. Unless stipulated otherwise in these Articles of Association, the General Meeting passes its resolutions by means of a simple majority of the votes cast by the shareholders in attendance.
- 8.26. In the qualified cases listed in point 8.33., the General Meeting must accept a resolution proposal if at least a three-quarters majority of the attending shareholders vote in favour of it.
- 8.27. If the Company has issued shares belonging to various series, and pursuant to a statutory provision the consent of the holders of any of the share series are required in order for the General Meeting's resolution to be valid, then the resolution shall be classified as conditional, and it shall only become effective if the attending shareholders of the share series in question – in absence of any provisions of the Articles of Association to the contrary – consent to it with a majority vote.
- 8.28. Unless provided otherwise by these Articles of Association, resolutions at the General Meeting shall be passed by open ballot.

- 8.29. In its first resolution the General Meeting shall elect, from those proposed by the Chairman of the General Meeting, an attending shareholder to authenticate the minutes, and the vote counters. If such election is unsuccessful, the Chairman of the General Meeting shall make another proposal.
- 8.30. Minutes of the General Meeting must be taken, and must contain the following:
- a.) the Company's name and registered office;
 - b.) the manner, venue and time of holding the General Meeting;
 - c.) the data necessary for determining whether the General Meeting is quorate, and any changes in the number of persons attending;
 - d.) the names of the Chairman of the General Meeting, the keeper of the minutes, the authenticators of the minutes and the vote counters;
 - e.) the main events of the General Meeting, and the motions tabled;
 - f.) the resolution proposals, for each resolution, the number of shares on behalf of which a valid vote was cast, the extent of share capital represented by such votes, the number of the votes for and against the proposals, and the number of abstentions;
 - g.) an objection by a shareholder, member of the Board of Directors or member of the Supervisory Board against any resolution, if the noting of the objection is requested by the person making it;
- 8.31. The minutes are signed by the Chairman of the General Meeting and the keeper of the minutes, and are authenticated by an attending shareholder elected for this purpose.
- 8.32. The Board of Directors sends the authenticated copy of the minutes of the General Meeting to the Court of Registration within 30 days from the close of the General Meeting, together with the register of attendance and documents proving that the General Meeting was properly convened.
- 8.33. The General Meeting has exclusive authority with respect to the following matters:
1. except in the cases referred by these Articles of Association to the authority of the Board of Directors, the establishment and amendment of the Articles of Association; (qualified majority); the General Meeting decides on proposals concerning the amendment of the Articles of Association – based on a resolution passed by shareholders with a simple majority – either individually or en masse;
 2. capital increases – except in the case that comes under the authority of the Board of Directors;
 3. changes to the rights associated with specific series of shares, or the transformation of certain categories or classes of shares; (qualified majority)
 4. the decision regarding the delisting of the shares; (qualified majority)
When making the decisions, shares embodying multiple voting rights shall represent one share.

5. the lowering of capital, unless the Civil Code provides otherwise; (qualified majority);
6. a decision on the Company's transformation, merger or termination without legal successor, with the proviso that in the case stipulated in subsection iv) of section 9.13. c), the decision shall be made by the Board of Directors; (qualified majority)
7. the election of the members of the Board of Directors, the Supervisory Board and Audit Committee, and of the permanent auditor (hereinafter: auditor), the determination of their remuneration, and determination of the substantive content of the contract to be concluded with the auditor;

In the minimum number of members of a governing body, as determined in the Articles of Association, is not elected, a resolution shall be passed, pursuant to section 8.19. of the Articles of Association, to hold a continued General Meeting with regard to this point of the agenda.

8. the recall of members of the Board of Directors, the Supervisory Board and Audit Committee, and of the auditor; (qualified majority)

More than one third of the members of the Board of Directors and the non-executive members of the Supervisory Board may be recalled within a 12-month period only if any shareholder holds more than 33% of the shares issued by the Company, which have been obtained by the shareholder by way of a public purchase offer.

9. approval of the financial statements prepared in accordance with the Act on Accounting, including the decision on the use of the after-tax profit;
10. a decision – unless the Civil Code provides otherwise – on the issuance of convertible bonds, equity bonds or bonds with subscription rights;
11. (Deleted);
12. decision on preclusion of the exercising of pre-emptive subscription rights; (qualified majority)
13. authorisation of the Board of Directors to acquire treasury shares;
14. authorisation of the Board of Directors to increase the registered capital;
15. (Deleted);
16. (Deleted);
17. with the exceptions specified in the Civil Code, the decision to acquire treasury shares;
18. decision on a change to the Company's form of operation (private or public)

- (qualified majority);
19. decision – unless these Articles of Association provide otherwise – on the payment of a dividend advance;
 20. decision on the guidelines and framework for a long-term salary and incentives scheme for senior office-holders, Supervisory Board members and senior employees (Remuneration Guidelines);
 21. approval of the Corporate Governance Report;
 22. decision on the granting of any discharge of liability to members of the Board of Directors;
 23. the provision of financial assistance to a third party for the acquisition of shares issued by the company; (qualified majority).
- 8.34. With the exception of those who have contributed to taking the decision – the judicial review of an illegal resolution of the General Meeting may be requested by:
- a.) any shareholder,
 - b.) any member of the Board of Directors,
 - c.) any member of the Supervisory Board.
- 8.35. The request for a judicial review of an unlawful resolution shall be filed against the Company within thirty days after learning of such resolution, or from the time when the person lodging such request could have learnt of the resolution. After the expiry of a one-year peremptory deadline from the passing of the resolution, a lawsuit may not be launched.
- 8.36. In the event of the transformation of the share types, share classes and share series of shares issued by the Company into other share types, share classes or series of shares, with respect to the shares that will be converted the provisions of point 8.27. of these Articles of Association shall be applied. The General Meeting decides on the main conditions of such conversion.

Article 9

The Board of Directors:

- 9.1. The Board of Directors is the executive body of the Company.
- 9.2. The Board of Directors has at least 5, and up to 11 members.
- 9.3. The members of the Board of Directors are elected by the General Meeting based on its decision uniformly either for an indefinite period or for five years; in the latter case the mandate ends with the General Meeting concluding the fifth financial year following the election. The mandate of a member elected during this period expires together with the mandate of the Board of Directors.

- 9.4. The Board of Directors elects a Chairman and, may elect one or more Deputy Chairmen, from among its own members, whose period of office shall be equal to the mandate of the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors is also the Chief Executive Officer (Chairman & CEO) of the Company, unless the Board of Directors decides within its competence that the position of Chairman of the Board of Directors and the Chief Executive Officer of the Company are held by separate persons.
- 9.5. The members of the Board of Directors shall always act with due care and the necessary expertise, in accordance with the statutory provisions.

Regarding the approval of the financial statements, the Supervisory Board makes a proposition to the General Meeting on its assessment of the work of the members of the Board of Directors in the past financial year, and on the granting of any discharge of liability to the members of the Board of Directors. By granting a discharge from liability the General Meeting confirms that the given members of the Board of Directors have, during the period under review, performed their work with due regard to the Company's best interests.

- 9.6. The membership of the Board of Directors ceases to exist by
- a.) expiry of the mandate,
 - b.) resignation,
 - c.) recall,
 - d.) death,
 - e.) the occurrence of grounds for disqualification as regulated by law.
 - f.) termination of the employment of internal (executive) Board members.
- 9.7. The meetings of the Board of Directors are held as necessary, but at least 6 times a year.
- 9.8. In addition to the cases prescribed is mandatory in the Articles of Association, a meeting of the Board of Directors shall also be convened in the cases defined in the Rules of Procedure of the Board of Directors.
- 9.9. The procedure for meetings of the Board of Directors is defined by the Board of Directors in its Rules of Procedure.
- 9.10. Meetings of the Board of Directors are attended, in an advisory capacity, by the Chairman of the Supervisory Board or a member of the Supervisory Board designated by him. The Chairman of the Board of Directors may also invite other persons in an advisory capacity.
- 9.11. Meetings of the Board of Directors are quorate if more than half the members of the Board of Directors are present.
- 9.12. a.) The Board of Directors passes its resolutions – except in the qualified cases defined in the Credit Institutions Act and in the Board of Directors' rules of procedure – by a simple majority vote of the attendees.
- b.) The Board of Directors may pass valid resolutions without holding a meeting if the board members send their vote – given in respect of the draft resolution sent to them – in writing, in an original copy, to the registered office of the Company within 15 days.

c.) For the voting conducted by the Board of Directors in the manner defined in point b.) to be valid, the votes of more than half of the members of the Board of Directors must be cast in a valid manner.

d.) The detailed rules on written voting are defined in the Rules of Procedure of the Board of Directors.

e.) Instead of personally attending the meetings, members of the Board of Directors may also exercise their members' rights at board meetings by using an electronic communication device suitable for identifying the member and assuring mutual and unrestricted communication between the members.

9.13. Obligations and exclusive powers of the Board of Directors

a) The Board of Directors is obliged to

- i.) prepare the Company's financial statements in accordance with the Accounting Act, and make a proposal for the use of the profit after taxation;
- ii.) prepare a report once a year for the General Meeting, and once every three months for the Supervisory Board, concerning management, the status of the Company's assets and business policy;
- iii.) provide for the proper keeping of the Company's business books;
- iv.) perform the tasks referred to its authority under the Credit Institutions Act, in particular:
 - ensuring the integrity of the accounting and financial reporting system;
 - elaborating the appropriate strategy and determining risk tolerance levels for each business unit concerned;
 - setting risk assumption limits;
 - providing the necessary resources for the management or risk, the valuation of assets, the use of external credit ratings and the application of internal models.

b.) The following, in particular, come under the exclusive authority of the Board of Directors:

- i.) election of the Chairman & Chief Executive Officer of the Company, and exercising employer's right in respect thereof;
- ii.) election of one or more Deputy Chairmen of the Board of Directors;
- iii.) determination of the annual plan;
- iv.) the analysis and assessment of the implementation of business-policy guidelines, on the basis of the Company's quarterly balance sheet;
- v.) decisions on transactions referred to the authority of the Board of Directors by the Company's organisational and operational regulations;
- vi.) decision on launching, suspending, or terminating the performance of certain banking activities within the scope of the licensed activities of the Company;
- vii.) designation of the employees entitled to sign on behalf of the

- Company;
- viii.) decision on the increasing of registered capital at the terms set out in the relevant resolution of the General Meeting;
 - ix.) decision to acquire treasury shares at the terms set out in the relevant resolution of the General Meeting;
 - x.) decision on approving internal loans in accordance with the Credit Institutions Act;
 - xi.) decision on the approval of regulations that fundamentally determine banking operations, or are referred to its authority by the Credit Institutions Act. The following shall qualify as such regulations:
 - the collateral evaluation regulations,
 - the risk-assumption regulations,
 - the customer rating regulations,
 - the counterparty rating regulations,
 - the investment regulations,
 - the regulations on asset classification, impairment and provisioning,
 - the organisational and operational regulations, which contain the regulations on the procedure for assessing requests related to large loans,
 - the regulations on the transfer of signatory rights;
 - xii.) the decision on approving the Rules of Procedure of the Board of Directors;
 - xiii.) decision on steps to hinder a public takeover procedure;
 - xiv.) decision on the acceptance of a public purchase offer received in respect of treasury shares;
 - xv.) decision on the commencement of trading in the shares in a regulated market (flotation);
 - xvi.) decision on the cessation of trading in the shares in a given regulated market, provided that the shares are traded in another regulated market (hereinafter: transfer).

c.) The Board of Directors is exclusively authorised to:

- i.) decide, in the cases specified in the Civil Code, on acceptance of the Company's interim balance sheet, subject to the prior approval of the Supervisory Board;
- ii.) decide, instead of the General Meeting, to pay an advance on dividends, subject to the preliminary approval of the Supervisory Board;
- iii.) make decisions regarding any change in the Company's name, registered office, permanent establishments and branches, and in the Company's activities – with the exception of its core activity – and, in relation to this, to modify the Articles of Association should it become necessary to do so on the basis of the Civil Code or the Articles of Association;
- iv.) make decision on mergers (if, according to the provisions of the law on the transformation, merger and demerger of legal entities, the approval of the General Meeting is not required in order for the merger to take place).

- 9.14. The Board of Directors directly exercises employer's rights in respect of the Chairman & CEO. The person affected by a decision may not participate in the decision making. Employer rights in respect of the executive directors of the Company are exercised by the Board of Directors through the Chairman & CEO, with the proviso that the Board of Directors must be notified in advance of the appointment and dismissal of the Deputy CEOs. With regard to issues related to the exercising of employer's rights in respect of employees, the Company is represented by the Chief Executive Officer and by the senior company employees defined in the Organisational and Operational Regulations of the Company, in accordance with the delegation of authority approved by the Board of Directors. If the Chairman of the Board of Directors and the CEO are different persons, the employer rights in respect of the other executive directors of the Company (CEO, deputy CEOs) are exercised by the Board of Directors through the Chairman of Board of Directors, with the proviso that the Board of Directors shall be notified in advance of the appointment and dismissal of the CEO and Deputy CEOs. With regard to issues related to the exercising of employer's rights in respect of employees, the Company is represented by the persons defined in the Organisational and Operational Regulations of the Company, in accordance with the delegation of authority approved by the Board of Directors.
- 9.15. The Board of Directors may delegate, to individual members of the Board of Directors, to executive directors employed by the Company, and to the heads of the individual service departments, any task that does not come under the exclusive authority of the Board of Directors in accordance with these Articles of Association or a General Meeting resolution.
- 9.16. Minutes are taken of the Board of Directors' meetings, as prescribed in the rules of procedure.
- 9.17. Members of the Board of Directors are subject to all obligations, and prohibitions established for executive officers by the Credit Institutions Act, the Capital Markets Act and the Investment Services Act.
- 9.18. The composition of the Board of Directors, as at the time of setting out the amendment to the Articles of Association in consolidated format, is contained in Annex 1 of the Articles of Association, drawn up by the legal representative drafting the amendment in consolidated format.

Article 10

Chairman & CEO

- 10.1. Tasks are shared between the Board of Directors and the Chairman & CEO in such a way that the daily work of the Company is governed and overseen by the Chairman & CEO within the constraints of the law and the Company Articles of Association, and in accordance with the decisions of the General Meeting and Board of Directors. The Chairman & CEO has the authority to decide upon any matters that do not come under the authority of the General Meeting or Board of Directors in accordance with these Articles of Association. This division of tasks does not affect the statutory liability of the Board of Directors, or of the individual members of the Board of Directors. If the Chairman of the Board of Directors and the CEO are different persons, then the aforesaid rule shall apply adequately with the proviso that between the Chairman of the Board of Directors and CEO the division of the governing and overseeing powers relating to the daily work of the Company is defined by the Board of Directors in the Organisational and Operational Regulations of the Company.

- 10.2. If the Chairman & CEO is incapacitated, the nominated Deputy Chairman (or designated member of the Board of Directors) may substitute for the Chairman & CEO in his capacity as Chairman, and the Deputy CEO may substitute for him in his capacity as chief executive officer, although the substitution rights shall not extend to the exercising of employer rights. If the Chairman of the Board of Directors and the CEO are different persons, the Chairman of the Board of Directors may be substituted by the nominated Deputy Chairman (or designated member of the Board of Directors); the CEO may be substituted by the nominated Deputy CEO with the proviso that none of the substitution rights shall be extended to the exercising of employer rights.
- 10.3. The Chairman & CEO exercises employer's rights with respect to the employees of the Company in accordance with point 9.14. If the Chairman of the Board of Directors and the CEO are different persons, then the rules of exercising of employer rights with respect to the employees of the Company are defined – in accordance with point 9.14. – by the Board of Directors in the Organisational and Operational Regulations of the Company.
- 10.4. The Chairman & CEO governs the work of the Board of Directors and chairs its meetings. If the Chairman of the Board of Directors and the CEO are different persons, then the Chairman of the Board of Directors is vested with this competence.

Article 11

The Supervisory Board:

- 11.1. The Supervisory Board supervises the management of the Company.
The Supervisory Board has between 5 and 9 members.
- 11.2. The members of the Supervisory Board are elected by the General Meeting based on its decision uniformly either for an indefinite period or for three years; in the latter case the mandate ends with the general meeting closing the third economic year following the election. The period of office of a new member elected during shall last until the expiry of the Supervisory Board's mandate. The General Meeting may not elect members of the Board of Directors and their relatives as members of the Supervisory Board.

The General Meeting is also entitled to determine the number of the members of the Supervisory Board, and to recall the members, within the constraints of these Articles of Association.

The majority of the members of the Supervisory Board must be independent. Persons are deemed independent if they meet the requirements of Article 3:286-287 of the Civil Code.

- 11.3 In the absence of a provision of the Articles of Association to the contrary, approved by the Works Council operating at the Company, the employees are entitled to participate, through the Supervisory Board, in the supervision of the Company's operation. In this case one third of Supervisory Board members shall be representatives of the employees. The rules on the nomination of employee members of the Supervisory Board, and on initiating their recall, are defined by the Works Council operating at the Company.
- 11.4 The members of the Supervisory Board elect the Chairman and Deputy Chairman of the Supervisory Board from among themselves. In his capacity as substitute the Deputy Chairman acts for the Chairman.
- 11.5 The Supervisory Board determines and approves its own rules of procedure.
- 11.6 Meetings of the Supervisory Board are quorate if at least two thirds of its members are present. Decisions of the Supervisory Board are made with a simple majority of votes.

The Chairman & CEO, or a person delegated by him, must be invited to Supervisory Board meetings. If the Chairman of the Board of Directors and the CEO are different persons, then both the Chairman of the Board of Directors and the CEO shall be invited to meetings of the Supervisory Board.

The Supervisory Board is obliged to include matters proposed by the auditor to the agenda.

- 11.7 Supervisory Board membership terminates in accordance with Section 9.6. of the Articles of Association, and upon termination of the employment relationship in the case of an employee delegate.
- 11.8 The Supervisory Board oversees the management of the Company. As a part of this, the Supervisory Board may request reports or information from members of the Board of Directors and employees of the Company, which request shall be complied with in a reasonable time but within eight days at the latest. The Supervisory Board may inspect the Company's books and documents, or have them inspected by an expert. The General Meeting only makes a decision on the report prepared according to the Accounting Act, and on the use of the profit after tax, in possession of the written report of the Supervisory Board.
- 11.9 The Supervisory Board may exercise its rights as a body or through its members. The tasks of oversight may also be divided permanently among its members. The sharing of oversight does not affect the liability of a Supervisory Board member, nor such member's right to extend his or her authority to any other activity within the scope of authority of the Supervisory Board.
- 11.10 The members of the Supervisory Board must be invited to the General Meetings. The members of the Supervisory Board have the right of consultation at General Meetings, and are entitled to table motions.
- 11.11 Minutes must be taken of the meetings of the Supervisory Board. The Supervisory Board must hold at least 6 meetings each year. A meeting must also be convened if this is requested by one member of the Supervisory Board, at least two members of the Board of Directors, or by the auditor, in writing, indicating the reason and the purpose.

- 11.12 The composition of the Supervisory Board as at the time of setting out the amendment to the Articles of Association in consolidated format, is contained in Annex 1 of the Articles of Association, drawn up by the legal representative drafting the amendment in consolidated format.

Article 11/A

Audit Committee

- 11/A.1. The Company's General Meeting elects a minimum 3-member Audit Committee from among the independent members of the Supervisory Board. At least one member of the Audit Committee must have a professional accounting or auditing qualification.
- 11/A.2. The Audit Committee assists the Supervisory Board with the auditing of the financial reporting system, with the selection of an auditor and cooperation with the auditor, monitor the effectiveness of the Company's internal quality control and risk management systems and its financial reporting process and submit recommendations or proposals where deemed necessary, monitor the statutory audit of the annual and consolidated annual account, furthermore review and monitor the independence of licensed statutory auditors or the audit firms in accordance with the relevant legislation.
- 11/A.3. The Audit Committee is quorate if more than half of its members are present. The Audit Committee passes its resolutions with a simple majority of votes of the attendees. The detailed rules on the operation of the Audit Committee are contained in its rules of procedure, which is approved by the Supervisory Board.
- 11/A.4. The composition of the Audit Committee as at the time of setting out the amendment to the Articles of Association in consolidated format, is contained in Annex 1 of the Articles of Association, drawn up by the legal representative drafting the amendment in consolidated format.

Article 12

The auditor

- 12.1. The General Meeting of the Company shall choose, for each year, an auditor or auditing firm from among the auditors registered in Hungary that satisfy the provisions of the Credit Institutions Act. If an auditing company is selected, the General Meeting is entitled to approve as a part of the main element of the agreement entered into with the auditor the appointment of the member, senior officer or employee by the auditing company, who shall be personally responsible for auditing. The designation of the auditing organisation and the approved person is contained in Annex 1 of the Articles of Association, which is drawn up by the legal representative with the task of set out these Articles of Association in consolidated format.

- 12.2. No shareholder of the Company or member of the Board of Directors or Supervisory Board, nor any close relative thereof (Civil Code, Article 8:1 para. (2)) may be elected as auditor, and nor may any employee of the Company during the existence of such legal relationship and for a period of 3 years following the termination thereof.
- 12.3. In the case of an auditing company, the rules on conflicts of interest set out in Section 12.2. shall apply equally to the auditing company's employee who performs the audit, as to all members (shareholders), senior officers and senior employees of the auditing company.
- 12.4. With respect to the choice of auditor, and the auditor's remuneration, the Supervisory Board makes a proposal to the General Meeting, subject to the prior agreement of the Board of Directors.
- 12.5. The auditor may inspect the Company's documents, accounting records, and books, and may request additional information from the members of the Board of Directors, the Supervisory Board and the Company's employees, and may examine the Company's payment account, petty cash, securities and commodities portfolio, and its contracts. The auditor exercises this entitlement in cooperation with the Company's independent internal audit unit.
- 12.6. The auditor must be invited to the General Meetings of the Company. The auditor may attend the meetings of the Supervisory Board in an advisory capacity, and is obliged to participate in such meetings if called upon to do so by the Supervisory Board.
- 12.7. The auditor is obliged to notify the Supervisory Board and initiate a convening of the General Meeting via the Board of Directors, if he or she learns of
 - a.) a change in the assets of the Company of such an extent as to jeopardise the satisfaction of claims against the Company;
 - b.) any fact that entails the liability of the members of the Board of Directors, or of the members of the Supervisory Board.
- 12.9. If, notwithstanding the above, the Company's General Meeting is not convened, or if the General Meeting fails to make decisions required by the statutory provisions, the auditor shall notify the Court of Registration performing legal supervision.

Article 12/A

Executive officers of the Company

- 12/A.1. The executive officers of the Company include: the Chairman & CEO (or, if the Chairman of the Board of Directors and the CEO are different persons, then the Chairman of the Board of Directors and the CEO), members of the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Supervisory Board, members of the Supervisory Board, and the Deputy Chief Executive Officers (executive employees).
- 12/A.2. Executive officers must immediately notify the Chairman & CEO (or, if the Chairman of the Board of Directors and the CEO are different persons, then the Chairman of the Board of Directors shall be notified) if:

- a.) they have a qualified holding or a controlling influence in any company as defined in the Credit Institutions Act;
 - b.) any of their close relatives has a qualified holding or a controlling influence in any company as defined in the Credit Institutions Act;
 - c.) since their appointment, an event has occurred that disqualifies them from serving as executive officers.
- 12/A.3. An executive officer may be elected as a senior office holder or member of the Supervisory Board in a business entity whose designated core activity is the same as the Company's core activity, if the Company has a qualified holding as defined in the Credit Institutions Act, in the business entity concerned, or in case of the prior consent of the Board of Directors of the Company.
- 12/A.4. An executive officer may not – with the exception of the acquisition of a stake in a publicly held joint stock company – acquire a shareholding in another business entity whose designated core activity is the same as the Company's core activity, unless the Board of Directors of the Company gives its prior consent.
- 12/A 5. Executive officers and their relatives may conclude agreements for the use of services provided by the Company in accordance with the applicable rules of the Civil Code, the Credit Institutions Act and the Capital Markets Act.

Article 13

Reports of the Company and the distribution of profit

- 13.1. The business year of the Company begins on 1 January and ends on 31 December of the same year.
- 13.2. The Board of Directors submits, to the annual ordinary General Meeting, the financial statements for the previous business year made in accordance with the Accounting Act, together with its own report and the reports of the Supervisory Board and of the auditor.
- 13.3. The Company's business results are determined in accordance with international accounting standards promulgated in the Official Journal of the EU by way of the procedure provided for in regulation on the application of international accounting standards (hereinafter referred to as "IFRS").
- 13.4. Shareholders are entitled to receive a dividend from the Company's available profit determined by the IFRS covering retained earnings from the last financial year for which accounts have been adopted comprising post-tax profit or loss of that financial year that has been set aside by the General Meeting for distribution among the shareholders.
- 13.5. The payment of dividends must be commenced within 60 days following the relevant resolution by the General Meeting. The Company requests shareholder identification from Keler Zrt. with respect to the dividend payment, as a corporate event. The date of the shareholder identification is the 5th (fifth) trading day before the starting date of dividend payment. The rules relating to the shareholder identification process are set out in the latest effective regulations of Keler Zrt.

At least 20 working days must pass between the date of the (General Meeting) resolution specifying the starting date of dividend payment, and the start of dividend payment.

- 13.6. The following are prerequisites for payment of the dividend:
- a) the owner of the share is effectively registered in the Share Register of the Company;
 - b) the shareholding of the shareholder on the date of the shareholder identification (record date) is certified by the result of the shareholder identification,
 - c) the share ownership of the shareholder does not violate the relevant statutory provisions and the Articles of Association, which circumstance shall be established through by the Company through checks made prior to the payment of dividend.
- 13.7. The shareholders must be informed, through an announcement specified in section 13.8, of the procedure for payment of the dividends.
- 13.8. The Company shall treat the dividend payable in respect of shares classed as treasury shares as a profit share due to the shareholders entitled to receive dividends, proportionately to their respective shareholdings (i.e. the Company shall distribute this among the shareholders who are entitled to receive dividend). At least 10 working days must pass between the publication of the announcement on the procedure for dividend payment and the starting date of dividend payment. The announcement on the extent of dividend per share, adjusted for the dividend paid on treasury shares, based on the resolution that provides for the extent of the dividend, is published by the Company, not later than on the day of receipt of the result of the shareholder verification procedure related to the dividend payment, as a corporate event.
- 13.9. Upon a request for payment of dividend received after the shareholder identification as set out in clause 13.5., the Company shall only pay dividend to a shareholder entered in the Share Register, if
- a) the securities account keeper certifies that the shareholder held the same amount of shares at the time of the shareholder identification described in clause 13.5, and makes a declaration to the effect that a dividend payment has not been made in respect of these shares
- and
- b) the notification sent by the KELER Zrt. in accordance with clause 13.5. confirms that the securities account keeper is entitled to provide a certificate for this number of shares.
- 13.10. The Company is not obliged to pay dividend on the shareholder's first claim for dividend after five years have passed following the starting date of dividend payment.
- 13.11. The payment of dividend takes place by bank transfer. If the Company is late in paying dividend, the shareholder is entitled to default interest. The Company is late in payment if it does not perform within 8 days following fulfilment of the conditions set out in point 13.6, or in point 13.9, whichever is applicable.

- 13.12 If the statutory conditions for doing so are in place, the Company may pay an advance on dividend in accordance with the provisions of the Articles of Association.

Article 14

Raising and lowering the registered capital

- 14.1. The Company may raise its registered capital through a resolution of the General Meeting. The registered capital may be raised by any means specified in the relevant statutory regulations, especially
- a) by issuing new shares;
 - b) to the charge of net assets in excess of existing registered capital;
 - c) by issuing employee shares; and/or
 - d) as a contingent capital increase, by issuing convertible bonds or equity bonds.

New shares or bonds may be issued either in a private or a public offering.

In the framework of a capital increase through the issuance of new shares, shares belonging to the share type or share class that the Company is eligible to select under the relevant laws may be issued.

The types and methods of the capital increase defined herein may also be selected and implemented simultaneously.

- 14.2. In the case of a capital increase carried out by means of the offering of new shares – in every single case – the resolution on the capital increase shall contain provisions regarding the manner and timing of the payment made in respect of the shares, stipulating that the subscribed amount shall be payable to the Company immediately at the time of the subscription.

If the shareholder does not make the due payment at the time of the subscription, the subscription of the shares shall be null and void.

- 14.3. The Company may also raise capital privately, in which case only the persons and shareholders designated by the resolution in this regard shall be entitled to subscribe new shares during the capital increase, and in this case the relevant provisions of the Capital Markets Act relating to private placements shall be applied as appropriate.

- 14.4. (Deleted)

- 14.5. If the shares of the Company are issued in a variety of share types or classes, then the General Meeting resolution on the raising of capital, or on the granting of authorisation for the Board of Directors to increase capital, shall only be valid if the shareholders of every share class or share series directly affected by the capital increase, being present at the General Meeting, have separately granted their consent by a simple majority in accordance with the rules on voting at General Meetings.

- 14.6. If the shares of the Company have been issued in a variety of share types or classes, then the General Meeting resolution on the lowering of capital, or on the granting of authorisation for the Board of Directors to lower capital, shall only be valid if the shareholders of every share type or share class directly affected by the lowering of capital, being present at the General Meeting, have separately granted consent by a simple majority in accordance with the rules on voting at General Meetings.

- 14.7. In the event of a private increase in capital, a preferential subscription right shall be offered to those shareholders (or if the Company has issued convertible bonds or bonds with subscription rights – hereinafter, for the purpose of this point: Bonds – those bondholders – hereinafter for the purposes of this point: Bondholders) who, as of the date to be specified by the Board of Directors or by the General Meeting, (date of preferential subscription) were Shareholders/Bondholders of the Company. The Company will request shareholder identification in of this day from KELER Zrt.

In the event of a public capital increase, a preferential subscription right shall be offered to the Shareholders/Bondholders who, on the first day of subscription (date of preferential subscription) were Shareholders/Bondholders of the Company. The Company will request shareholder identification in of this day from KELER Zrt.

- 14.8. The Company is obliged to notify the shareholders and the holders of convertible bonds and bonds with subscription rights, by way of an announcement, regarding the opportunity to exercise the preferential subscription right and the method of doing so, including information about the nominal and issue value of the shares to be offered, and the start and end date of the – fifteen-day – period in which such right may be exercised.

- 14.9. Sequence in which preferential rights may be exercised

a) The Shareholder/Bondholders belonging in the same group among those defined under points a) to d) below shall have the same preferential rights, while relative to each other the various groups of Shareholders/Bondholders may exercise their rights in the following order of priority:

- i.) shareholders of shares in the same series as the new shares issued
- ii.) all shareholders of shares that are not in the same series as the new shares issued;
- iii.) Bondholders who hold convertible bonds;
- iv.) Bondholders who hold bonds with subscription rights.

b) Those in the same group may exercise their preferential rights as follows in respect of the shares to be issued during the capital increase:

- i.) All subscriptions based on a preferential acquisition right must be satisfied if this possible given the number of shares to be issued.
- ii.) If not all acquisition requests within the given group can be satisfied, then the competing subscriptions have to be satisfied on the basis of a ‘card dealing’ system, in such a way that the subscription requests are arranged in random sequence by a computer. During this process, in every subsequent round of allocations, shareholders whose acquisition requests have been satisfied in the previous round shall not be considered when determining the sequence. The detailed rules for exercising the preferential rights are established by the Board of Directors and published in an announcement.

14.10. The Board of Directors shall publish its written proposal for a proposal to exclude preferential subscription rights on the day before the General Meeting in accordance with Article 15 of the Articles of Association. The question of whether to preclude preferential subscription/acquisition rights is debated by the general meeting according to its rules. The proposal should include the detailed reasons for the preclusion of preferential subscription rights, and a precise description of the shares to be issued in the given capital increase, and the number and the total issue value of such shares.

Article 15
